

INTERNATIONAL TRADE IN SERVICES SURVEY, 2010
(GENERAL)
EXPLANATORY NOTES

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Transactions to be reported in this form

1. In this form, you are required to report all transactions with non-residents unless otherwise stated. Non-residents are defined as:
 - (a) Persons whose main centre of interest is not in Singapore or whose residence in Singapore does not exceed one year;
 - (b) Companies and other bodies whose permanent or registered address is outside Singapore, including overseas branches or subsidiaries of Singapore-registered companies or institutions. Branches or subsidiaries of foreign companies located within Singapore are considered as residents.
2. Report transactions with non-resident related companies, even if they are made through the intra-corporate accounting system.

Transactions not to be reported in this form

3. In general, you need not report any transactions with residents. For example, payments to Singapore Telecoms for international calls need not be reported in this form. However, there are some exceptions. Please refer to specific notes for these items.
4. Do not report any goods imported into and exported from Singapore which have already been reported to Singapore Customs.
5. Do not report any remitted profits, interest, dividends, capital gains, loans, deposits, investments or any other capital flows.
6. Do not report any transactions with the following entities in Singapore, including their transactions on behalf of their non-resident principals:
 - (a) business representative offices of foreign companies;
 - (b) branches and offices of foreign airlines and shipping lines;
 - (c) shipping agencies acting on behalf of foreign shipping lines.

Residency of Transacting Parties

7. For services transactions, you should identify transactions based on residency of the party whom you render services to or receive services from, and not based on the party whom you receive reimbursements from or make payments to. For example, if your company provided legal services to a firm located in country A but was paid through a local business associate of that firm, you should report the legal services as receipts from country A.
8. Transactions with non-residents through your overseas agents should be treated as your own transactions with non-residents. Services rendered by your overseas agents to you should be reported as import of services.

Accrual Basis

9. Report amount earned and expenses incurred during the period whether or not the amount had been received or paid.

Gross Reporting

10. Transactions are to be reported on a gross basis. Expenses incurred in the course of rendering the service, e.g. commissions, other services, etc., are to be included. Report them separately, if applicable.

Currency

11. Report payments and receipts in thousand Singapore dollar. Convert payments and receipts denominated in foreign currency to Singapore dollar at the exchange rate prevailing at the time of transaction.

How to Complete the Form

12. The following example depicts how non-resident transactions are to be captured:

Example

- Suppose your company engaged the service of an advertising agency in country A costing S$100,000. In addition, your company was paid S$200,000 and S$350,000 by clients in country B and country C respectively for computer consultancy and software development services.

(a) In Section C, please tick the appropriate items.

This refers to all other royalty payments that are not included in the list above. Specify the type of royalty payments and if spaces provided are insufficient, please attach separate sheets.

691 - 694. Purchase and Sales of Patents, Copyright, Trademark, etc.

The payment of royalties must also be distinguished from the purchase/sale of intellectual property such as patents, copyrights and trademarks. While royalties normally involves continuous payments and the resulting use of intellectual property rights for a limited period of time, the purchase of intellectual property means the company has total ownership of the proprietary rights and can freely transfer it to a third party. One way to distinguish usage and purchase is that for usage the transaction is entered into the income and expenditure account while for purchase the company will carry it as an intangible asset in the balance sheet.

Trade and Transport Related Services

620. Cargo Handling, Warehousing and Logistic Services

This refers to harbour and airport services fees received from or paid to non-residents in cargo and container handling, lighterage, stevedoring and cargo surveying. Logistics services include freight forwarding, repacking, sorting, grading, assembling of goods, stock management, custom clearance, shipping documentation and logistic consultancy. Also included are storage charges, warehousing and other distribution services. Do not report international freight charges at the ports.

700. Third-Party Commission/Agency Fees

This refers to non-resident third-party commission or agency fee received for acting as an intermediary between companies on the trading of goods and/or non-residents as well as payment to companies for acting as your intermediaries. Do not report services where agent acquires ownership of goods; market research (report in code 040), procurement service, purchasing agent's fee, distributor's fee, representatives' fee (report in code 715).

705. Merchanting Services

This refers to sales and purchases of goods whereby the goods are shipped directly between two countries without entering Singapore. The seller or buyer can be a resident or non-resident, so long as the goods were not declared to Singapore Customs. All credit sales and purchases should be included, but any sales and purchases that do not involved physical movement of goods, such as the purchase of commodity futures for hedging should not be reported.

This item requires identifying goods that do not enter Singapore as the main criteria and thereafter the country of the seller and the buyer. Do not report exports and imports of goods; goods declared to Singapore Customs; imported materials for manufacturing or for assembly; sales and purchases that do not involve physical movement of goods; and, purchase of commodity futures for hedging.

715. Marketing Services
