

PRESS STATEMENT

Completion of Field Data Collection for Household Expenditure Survey 2017/18

The Singapore Department of Statistics (DOS) has completed the field data collection phase of the Household Expenditure Survey (HES) 2017/18, which started in October 2017.

Kindly be informed that there will be no further visits to households by survey officers from DOS with effect from 8 December 2018. Households which were surveyed for the HES 2017/18 may be contacted via telephone for clarifications on the information earlier provided.

With the conclusion of the HES 2017/18 field data collection phase, the existing toll free HES Hotline (1800-888-1718) and email address (singstat_hes@singstat.gov.sg) will be discontinued with effect from 8 December 2018. Households who wish to contact DOS for matters pertaining to the HES 2017/18 may call our general hotline 1800-323-8118 or (65) 6332 8722 (for overseas callers) from 8:30 am to 5.30 pm, Mondays to Fridays (excluding public holidays), or email to info@singstat.gov.sg.

DOS wishes to express our appreciation to all surveyed households for the support and cooperation in providing the information required for the HES 2017/18.

* Calls from mobile telephone lines to 1800 local toll free number may be subject to mobile airtime charges as imposed by the relevant mobile service provider.
