Advance Estimates of Singapore's Direct Investment Abroad (Stock as at end 2025)

Singapore's Direct Investment Abroad (DIA) plays a crucial role in the diversification of the economy. Through the expansion of operations overseas, DIA enables companies in Singapore to reach new markets, deepen market presence and capture global demand, thus contributing to the diversification and growth of the Singapore economy. Additionally, DIA can facilitate the transfer of skills, knowledge and technology, benefiting the companies involved and the countries where the investments are made. DIA usually occurs through the establishment of new subsidiaries, mergers and acquisitions, or the expansion of existing enterprises overseas.

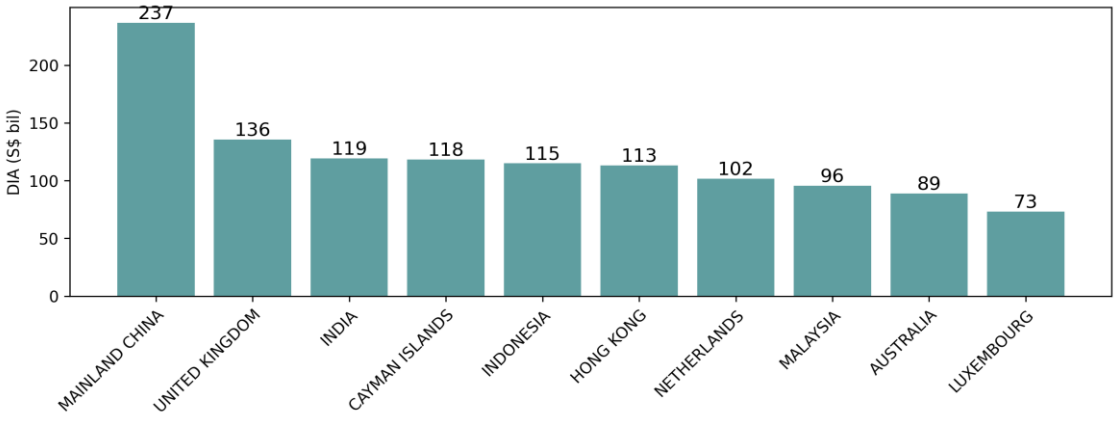

SINGAPORE'S DIA BY COMPONENT, 2025

The stock of Singapore's DIA by the corporate sector stood at $1,850 bil as at end 2025. Direct Equity Investment formed about 94.3% of the DIA stock, while Net Inter-Company Lending accounted for the remaining 5.7%.

TOP 10 DESTINATION ECONOMIES, 2025

The top 10 destination economies collectively accounted for 64.8% of the total DIA as at end 2025. Mainland China, United Kingdom, India, and Indonesia were among the top investment destinations.
